REPORT NO.

1. In Buenos Aires exiled leaders of the Paraguayan Febrerista Party have expelled the following members of the party because of their Communist affiliations:

Raimundo Careaga
Hassim Yampey
Miguel Angel Soler, Jr.

2. Careaga was president of the powerful University Federation in Asuncion prior to the Febrerista defeat in the 1947 revolution in Paraguay. Yampey, who is residing in Montevideo, was also a former president of the University Federation. Soler, Jr., is the son of the former Minister of Foreign Affairs of Paraguay and was himself formerly president of the law student center at the university. Careaga and Soler, Jr., are believed to have turned Communist following the 1947 revolution because of their bitterness over the political tyranny in Paraguay.
